February KPIs

- Total Sales Revenue: ₦1,216,200.00.
- Total Quantity Sold: 48.50 packs.
- Sales Reach: 25 active supermarkets.
- Customer Response: The quantity of 48.50 packs sold indicates Orisirisi is a high-volume good with the 500ml Tiger Nut Drink being the primary driver.

Identified Strengths

- Consistent Growth Trend: The brand maintained a steady upward trajectory throughout the month, with the WoW trend growing from 4% to 48%.
- Product Market Leader: The 500ml Tiger Nut Drink accounts for nearly half of total revenue at ₦552.0K.
- Retail Anchor: Renees Supermarket (Lekki Central Mosque) is a primary driver of volume, contributing ₦190.8K.

Identified Gaps

- Underperforming SKUs: The 350ml Walnut Drink (₦54.0K) and 350ml Walnut with Ginger (₦124.2K) contribute significantly less to the revenue mix than the Zobo and Tiger Nut variants.
- Inventory Imbalance: Stock for the 500ml Zobo Drink is low at only 5 packs, creating a risk of lost sales for this mid-tier performer.

March Recommendations

- Stock Optimization: Deliver a minimum of 10 packs of 500ml Zobo Drink to the warehouse to align stock levels with current demand.
- Variant Promotion: Implement a "bundle" or discount strategy for the Walnut variants to increase their market share and inventory turnover.
